Submitted to His Highness.

There are 2 acting vacancies in the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioners caused by (i) the appointment of Mr. K.V. Anantaraman as Private Secretary to the Dewan - which is an appointment outside the cadre of the Civil Service - with effect from the 20th April 1922, and (ii) the appointment of Mr. C.S. Kuppusamy Iyengar as Special Officer for expediting the disposal of lands available for cultivation, for a period of six months with effect from the 30th September 1922. The senior among Assistant Commissioners in the first class eligible for promotion to these two vacancies are (1) Mr.S.Venkatarangam and (2) Mr. P. T. Kesaviengar.

When the proposal for promoting Mr. S.Venkatarangam in the first of the above two vacancies came up before Council in June 1922, it was resolved that the question might be deferred till receipt of the next confidential report. The report on the work and character of Mr.Venkatarangam for the year ending 30th June 1922 has since been received and there is nothing unfavourable in it about him.

The Members of Council to whom the papers were circulated are of opinion that in the existing two vacancies, Mr.Venkatarangam and Mr.Kesaviengar may be promoted as Acting Senior Assistant Commissioners from 20th April and 30th September 1922 respectively.

The above recommendation may be graciously sanctioned.

My dear Sir,

I am directed to return file No. C.158 dated the 20th November 1922, and to say that it is doubtful whether any vacancies exist at all in the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioners, and to suggest that the Finance Department may be consulted.

It is stated in the Submission Note that the appointment of the Private Secretary to the Dewan is outside the cadre of the Civil Service. His Highness's impression is otherwise. I am to enquire when such an order was passed, and also whether it is really necessary to treat Mr. Kuppusamy Iyengar, the Special Officer, as outside the cadre of Senior Assistant Commissioners.

Yours sincerely,

Mirza M. Ismail

The office of ~~the~~ Private Secretary to Dewan is of the status of Assistant Commissioner and it is held by an Assistant Commissioner. I do not, therefore, understand the object of keeping this appointment outside the cadre of Assistant Commissioners. Whatever might have been the object of such exclusion when the arrangement was introduced I do not see any need for continuing it and the post may be included in the cadre. Indirect increase in the number of Senior Assistant Commissioners, more than one acting arrangement in one and the same vacancy and increased cost, which are the consequences of the present arrangement, will all be obviated by including the appointment in the cadre.

As regards the deputation of Mr. C.S. Kuppuswami Iyengar on special duty, I have to invite attention to the present condition of the Civil Service cadre which is one of a ~~large~~ excess in its strength compared with what the scale should be according to the orders in force. When there is an excess, it is not right to treat the deputation of one of the extra officers on special duty as ~~counting~~ creating a vacancy in which an acting arrangement is possible. There is extra cost in keeping on the excess number and it should not be be increased by acting arrangements until the excess number is absorbed.

For the above reasons I consider that acting arrangements are inadmissible in both cases.

From the above it will be seen that vacancies actually exist.

What the Financial Secretary suggests is that because there is an excess in the permanent cadre of Assistant Commissioners, vacancies in the list of Senior Assistant Commissioners need not be filled up. This seems to lose something of its force when it is remembered that although there is an excess in the permanent scale, this excess is more than made up for by the large number of permanent Assistant Commissioners on other duties, so that not only is the whole excess actually absorbed, but there is need for continuing a number of acting Assistant Commissioners. There is thus actually no extra cost. When the position of the officers in the grade of Assistant Commissioners is admittedly one of stagnation and is in need of urgent improvement, it seems to be very inadvisable to deny them the grade promotions they are entitled to under the existing sanctions and orders.

At present the post of Private Secretary to the Dewan is outside the cadre of Assistant Commissioners. Whether the considerations which led to this ruling have ceased to be effective and whether the post may not be included in the Assistant Commissioner's cadre either permanently or temporarily is a question which deserves to be examined. But until a decision is arrived at and the orders stand as they are there can be no objection to the vacancy of Senior Assistant Commissioner consequent on Mr. Anantharaman's employment on other duty being filled up.

If the appointment is eventually included in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners, the promotion against this vacancy would of course terminate.

Maybe considered in the duty of calling the next P.S.d inside the cadre. Seen. This leaves the selection of the P.S. to the Divan unfettered by any hard & fast rule. This is perhaps well! because the Divan personally knows the P.S. & can say whether the branch of the service - Revenue, Police &c. Legislative Council
